Washington Institute 2019 Social Change Awards

Overview:

Washington Institute, NCJW's premier public policy event, provides an opportunity to honor the exceptional social change work done by our sections and leaders. With Washington Institute 2019 quickly approaching, now is the time for you to nominate your section, SPA committee, and outstanding NCJW leaders for the awards listed on the nomination forms. This is your chance to share how NCJW sections and leaders are making an important difference at the local, state, or national level and to inspire others to work for social change.

Each Washington Institute 2019 Social Change Award nomination must be accompanied by a completed copy of the submission form and a completed Social Change Award application. Please be sure to review the criteria and answer the questions listed on the appropriate award application.

The deadline to submit a Social Change Awards application is Friday, January 25, 2019 so that we may announce the winners in advance of Washington Institute 2019! This year, we are once again producing a Recognition Book that will be distributed at Washington Institute. Friends and family will have an opportunity to pay tribute and offer congratulations to our incredible Social Change Award winners.

The following awards will be presented at Washington Institute 2019:

- Champion for Social Change
- Outstanding Advocate for Social Change
