

NCJW 2020-2023 RESOLUTIONS

* We use the terms 'woman' and 'women' throughout our Resolutions, but these terms are not intended to be exclusionary. We know and appreciate that gender is expansive and larger than a binary. At the same time, language is often limiting. We recognize that the history of women's organizations has not always been inclusive of transgender and non-binary people, and we are making steps to change that. We are striving to build a home for advocates of all marginalized gender identities and to include transwomen, ciswomen, and trans femme people at the center of our work.

Since our founding, NCJW has fought against patriarchal oppression. We welcome everyone — women, non-binary and agender people, gender fluid people, and beyond — to join us, advocate with us, and fight with us.

Principles:

These principles are fundamental beliefs of the National Council of Jewish Women. They are basic to and inherent in all specific resolutions.

1. Individual liberties and rights guaranteed by the Constitution are keystones of a free and pluralistic society and must be protected and preserved.
2. Religious liberty and the separation of religion and state are constitutional principles that must be protected and preserved in order to maintain our democratic society.
3. Human rights and dignity are fundamental and must be guaranteed to all individuals.
4. All individuals have the right to live in a ~~world at peace~~ peaceful world, free from violence and persecution.
5. A democratic society ~~and its people~~ must value and promote diversity, inclusion, ~~and promote~~ mutual understanding, and respect for all.
- ~~6.~~ Equal rights and ~~equal~~ opportunities for all people must be guaranteed, and all forms of discrimination must be eliminated, ~~by leveraging our diverse backgrounds, beliefs, cultures, genders, abilities, races, sexual orientations, and socio-economic status.~~

NEW 7. Every individual has the right to bodily autonomy and privacy, free from governmental, political, and religious interference in all health care decisions.

7.8. Social justice efforts must be informed and guided by the leadership and experiences of communities most impacted.

8. 9. The continuity of the Jewish people and its heritage, and respect for and among all Jews from every background and streams of Judaism, must be assured from generation to generation.

9. 10. The survival and security of the State of Israel and the establishment of a just and permanent peace are central to the Jewish people and vital to the interests of the United States.

~~10.~~ 11. A democratic society must provide for the needs of those unable to provide for themselves.

- ~~11.~~ 12. Mental and physical health, education, and human services must be affordable, appropriate, coordinated, comprehensive, accessible, inclusive, and sufficiently funded.
- ~~12.~~ 13. An educated and informed public is fundamental to a democratic society.
- ~~13.~~ 14. The protection, preservation, and restoration of the environment is vital to a sustainable future.
- ~~14.~~ 15. A democratic society depends on the collective efforts of the public, private, and not-for-profit sectors and is strengthened by the commitment and contribution of volunteers.
